DEAR READER

Toys and products for children form a very broad topic. What and where you talk about your product decides whether it is a success or a flop. Next to an advertising offer, this brochure will tell you what should be important while designing e.g. a press advertisement, so that shop owners feel encouraged to place an order.

You are free to contact me not only about advertising, but also about each and every topic that might serve as the canvas for an article at “Branża Dziecięca”:

HOW TO DESIGN A GOOD AD?

Good advertising means effective advertising. If you want to be effective, presenting your product with a slogan and a large logo is not enough ;) You need to know what troubles its audience and what problems the product might help to solve. Here, we suggest what you should emphasize.

As an industry magazine, we contact suppliers offering toys, prams, safety seats, and other products for children every day, we also talk to owners and to persons responsible for purchases. This is how we came up with a list of suggestions of what you should mention in your advertising as a manufacturer, so that it resonates better with your target group.

SAY THAT YOU'RE KEEPING YOUR EAR TO THE GROUND

You must've heard about the "online auction problem". The same products are available at lower prices than the price that the standard shops pay the supplier for it. This is their problem. Are you able to offer a price that allows them to be profitable? Mention it in the form of a guarantee of a profitable transaction.

ANTICIPATE THEIR FEARS

Why are shops unwilling to order new, unknown brands? They're afraid that they will quickly become non-sellers, if the products are not advertised and parents don't know about it. Emphasize that you're investing in advertising – even if it's not on TV, it's in magazines for pregnant women, on parenting websites and blogs, at birthing schools, and at maternity wards. Add an emblem to your design that says "a product advertised in..."

STRENGTHEN YOUR OFFER

Show them that you're a partner and you want the product to rotate. Add marketing support to your product. Posters and other PoS as well as bonuses for customers and training courses are the most popular. You might want to think outside the box and emphasize in your ads that you organise competitions (for customers of a given shop), you provide free products for the display or you help to decorate the display.

SHOW APPRECIATION

If a store invests in training courses for employees, shows initiative in the sales process, it acts to your benefit. Appreciate it, promote such stores – by offering them higher discounts or other privileges connected to supply or handling any complaints – and don't forget to mention it in advertising. A bonus programme for the best sellers might be your asset.

MAKE YOUR PARTNER LOOK GOOD

It is very important in critical situations, if a customer is not satisfied with the product (complaints). If you pay attention to keeping a good image of your client amongst their customers, your chances of another order grow. Provide help – ensure fast and easy procedure, offering additional services, e.g. replacement products for the duration of the repairs.

EMPHASIZE AVAILABILITY

We mean here something more than just the availability of the products, because keeping sufficient stock inventory to handle orders quickly is a must. Availability of your suppliers is just as important, assuring that they are always in touch. The problem often lies in not responding to calls or e-mails. Quote numbers: we ship our orders within 24 hours, we respond to e-mails within 5 minutes – and keep your promises.

THE EFFICIENCY OF ADVERTISING DEPENDS BOTH ON WHAT YOU SAY AND WHERE YOU PUT IT

If you want people responsible for purchases for their shops to become interested in your offer, advertising in an industry magazine will be a good place to start – over 90% of readers of "Branża Dziecięca" are owners of stores and warehouses.

TEKSTYLIA DLA DZIECI

LOKOMOTYWA Z BAWELNY

AGNIESZKA FILIPOWSKA

Niemowlętom ma być wygodnie. Rodzice potrzebują zapewnień o bezpieczeństwie materiału, jego wysokiej jakości i sprawdzonym pochodzeniu tkanin. Czy jest możliwy kompromis między potrzebami obu stron i wybicie się na tle konkurencji? Polskie firmy sprzedające tekstylia dla maluchów i matek mają różne pomysły. My przedstawiamy wybrane z nich.

Na branżowych i parentingowych targach, modyfikacjach eventach i w sklepach uwagę przykuwa coraz większa różnorodność kocików, poduszek i innych produktów dla dzieci. Wiele z wzorów i kolorów, specyfika materiałów i ich na rynkowy hit. Stoisko firmy jest oblegane na każdym targach, a po produkty chętnie sięgają zarówno rodzice, jak i właściciele sklepów poszukujący uzupełnienia asortymentu. Na przykład Joanna Witczak, prowadząca

Fabulo działa od lipca 2015 r., a inspiracją podczas pracy nad asortymentem stały się małe polskie twórcy tkanin dla dzieci. Ich markę docenił powieściopisarz Hincus, twórca tej nowej marki. – Mój soważer, Anna Tłoma, pokłubiła

„Dzisiaj to produkt, który ma być wygodny dla mamy i dziecka. Zależy nam na jakości, trwałości, ale przede wszystkim na tym, żeby było wygodnie, żeby było bezpieczne.”

WYWIAD

Współczesnym rodzicom coraz ważniejsze jest bezpieczeństwo ich dzieci. Nie jest więc dziwaczką, że w sklepach widać coraz więcej produktów, które mają być bezpieczne i wygodne.

„Ciekawym przykładem jest nasz kocik, który ma być bezpieczny i wygodny. Wiele z nas, rodziców, ma swoje pomysły na to, jak powinien wyglądać nasz kocik. Często to są pomysły, które nie są do końca realistyczne, ale my, producenci, musimy je przetransformować w coś, co jest bezpieczne i wygodne.”

spotykamy rodziców, którzy z zachwytem patrzą na naszą ofertę i z radością planują dodatki do pokroju dziecka. Pozostajemy wierni swojej pierwotnej koncepcji, idziemy pod prąd, przeciwstawiając się obecnym, trochę smutnym trendom tekstylnym – podkreśla Sylwia Filipes, reprezentująca Smili.

NA ŻYWO

Ważnym elementem są sprężyste i miękkie tkaniny, które mają być wygodne dla dziecka i rodzica. W naszym sklepie mamy wiele takich tkanin, które są idealne dla rodziców i dzieci.

– Po 8 latach działalności nie musimy już nikogo

Każda kobieta może dobrać poduszkę odpowiednią dla siebie. Duże znaczenie podczas dopasowywania mają potrzeby i wzrost klientki. Na każdym targach, na których prezentujemy naszą markę, mamy na stoisku kółko – panie się na nim układają i sprawdzają, który model jest dla nich najlepszy – opowiada Agnieszka Filipowska. W ostatnim czasie większego znaczenia w popularności marki nabierają także opinie blogerek. – W ten sposób nasze produkty zyskują ogólnie dostępne obiektywne oceny. Rzeczowym opisem towarzyszy wiele zdjęć – mówi twórczyni Super Miami.
